DANSKER & ASPROMONTE

Dansker & Aspromonte, a boutique personal injury and medical malpractice firm, provides the personalized client relationships of a small firm with the high impact results of a large practice.

Heavy-hitters in court, Dansker & Aspromonte has championed the rights of clients who have often been turned down by other firms, winning high-profile cases with large financial settlements to provide for their care and expenses.

For example:

- $50 million over the course of a lifetime for a boy who was brain-damaged as a result of an anesthesia overdose
- $10 million for a girl who sustained traumatic epilepsy from being hit by a truck gate
- $7.3 million for a woman struck by a police motor scooter

The firm also represented sixty plaintiffs in the Schomburg Plaza Fire in Harlem and has a widely publicized case pending that involves four fatalities on the New York State Thruway.

Dansker & Aspromonte constantly challenges government agencies, as well as major corporations, in championing the rights of its injured clients. The firm's lawyers have represented victims from all walks of life and from diverse communities in the metropolitan area, treating each client like family and giving them the time and respect that they deserve.

Meticulous preparation, an unwavering commitment to win client cases, and dedication to client relationships has propelled Dansker & Aspromonte to the forefront of the Personal Injury Bar.
